

Greta Thunberg will give a press conference in Spain.

 Juventud por el Clima
December 5th, 2019

The environmental activist will be addressing all of the media's questions before taking part in the Strike for Climate on the 6th which will start at Atocha and finish at Nuevos Ministerios.

The press conference will take place in La Casa Encendida at 16:30

In order to access the conference one must've previously received a permit via online form. All media must be present before 15:30 at Ronda de Valencia, 2.

Greta Thunberg, the 16 year old who has become an icon in the environmental fight, will come to Madrid and take part in the demonstration on the 6th of December, summoned by Youth for Climate-Fridays for Future Spain, Alianza por el Clima, Alianza por la Emergencia Climática, by2020-We Rise Up, Cumbre de los Pueblos, Sociedad Civil por la Acción Climática (SCAC) and Minga Indígena, with the support of hundreds of international organizations.

The strike, which will start off at Atocha at 18:00 and finish with a final act at Nuevos Ministerios, has the aim of delivering the movement's claim: immediate, real measures taken to address the unprecedented circumstances.

The activist, who has traveled from America to Portugal aboard 'La Vagabonde' (a catamaran owned by the youtubers Riley Whitlum and Elayna Carrasu), will reply to all questions posed to her by media at La Casa Encendida (Ronda de Valencia, 2) who will be accompanied by the activist Shari Crespi (Youth for Climate-Fridays for Future Spain), Vanessa Nakate (FFF Uganda) and the International coordinator of Youth for Climate-Fridays for Future Spain Alejandro Martinez. The conference will be moderated by the co-coordinator of communications and press Tomás Castillo (Youth for Climate-Fridays for Future Spain)
